Troublemaker

Sinner

She looks up, wiped the tears from your eyes She's fourteen, wants her father to die Sadism sucks, mother surrenders on fear She ain't gonna cry, nothing left to feelHe will never turning, her heart was burning Eye to eye, her cradle was rocked, run awayHang tough, troublemaker Hang tough, you're not to blame Hang tough, troublemaker He's burning now in flamesShe woke up, he slapped her face Darkened the room, tried to violate her She tried to talk, he made her a fool Look out it could happen near youNeighbors don't listen, swallow the pain She planned her vengeance today, run awayHang tough, troublemaker Hang tough, you're not to blame Hang tough, troublemaker He's burning now in flamesOne shot, his blood congeals in tears Will a judge listen, can he repeat her fourteen years Hang tough, troublemaker Hang tough, you're not to blame Hang tough, troublemaker He's burning now in flamesHang tough, troublemaker Hang tough, you're not to blame Hang tough, troublemaker He's burning now in flamesTroublemaker Troublemaker
