

Windowpane (live)

Opeth

Blank face in the windowpane
Made clear in seconds of light
Disappears and returns again
Counting hours, searching the night Might be waiting for someone
Might be there for us to see
Might be in need of talking
Might be staring directly at me Inside plays a lullaby
Slurred voice over children cries
On the inside Haunting loneliness in the eye
Skin covering a secret scar
His hand is waving a goodbye
There's no response or action returned
