

Paradise

Little Boots

I found a place that is holy
Somewhere to feel like a child
Where I escape when I'm lonely
For a while When I'm needing resurrection
Something to bring me to life
Whenever I'm craving attention
Inside But I can't stay
It's so wrong, it's so right
It's a fool's paradise
And I can't stay
It's so wrong, it's so right
It's a fool's paradise
Back to the real world
Into the gray
Back to the real world
All the color's fading
Back to the real world
Can't run away
Back to the real world
All the color's fading It's hard to hold onto a feeling
When nothing is left in your hands
Was it for real? Was I dreaming?
I don't understand Why I can't stay
It's so wrong, it's so right
It's a fool's paradise
And I can't stay
It's so wrong, it's so right
It's a fool's paradise
Back to the real world
Into the gray
Back to the real world
All the color's fading
Back to the real world
Can't run away
Back to the real world
All the color's fading Paradise, paradise, paradise
Paradise, paradise, paradise
Paradise, paradise, paradise
Paradise, paradise, paradise

Paradise, paradise, paradise
Paradise, paradise, paradiseBack to the real world
Into the gray
Back to the real world
All the color's fading
Back to the real world
Can't run away
Back to the real world
All the color's fadingParadise, paradise, paradise
