One Sided Love

Bobby Capri & Group

So doubtful I'm in love, I need you to listen
My heart is only tryin' to understand
I already stumbled and fell into your love
Like a castle falling in the sand
You were never there to hold me when I needed your hand
You were never there to listen when I needed a friend
Gave me lovin' for a day and never gave it again
Now I'm standing outside of your door
Going knock, knock, knock, knock, nobody's there
(Nobody's there but me)
Am I the only one hanging on?
Knock, knock, knock, nobody's holding me
I'm the only one hanging on
One sided, one sided, one sided love
Life's all deceiving, you had me believing
That you would never let me down
You dangled your candy in front of a baby
Then you took your sweets across the town
You were never there to hold me when I needed your hand
You were never there to listen when I needed a friend
Gave me lovin' for a day and never gave it again
Now I'm standing outside of your door

Going knock, knock, knock, knock, nobody's there
(Nobody's there but me)
Am I the only one hanging on?
Knock, knock, knock, nobody's holding me
I'm the only one hanging on
One sided, one sided, one sided love
What happened to the days we used to spend together, babe?
Breakfast, lunch and dinner, we used to be together, babe
Now I'm sitting home, watching movies on [incomprehensible]
Looking at the phone, waiting for your love
Knock, knock, knock, knock, nobody's there
(Ooh, you hear me knocking, babe, you hear me knocking crazy)
Am I the only one hanging on?
Knock, knock, knock, nobody's holding me
(Nobody's home but me)
I'm the only one hanging on

(Nobody cares for me)
One sided, one sided, one sided love
(Nobody's here with me)
(Who's gonna love me, who's gonna hold me?)
