

All Can Be Done

Nahko and Medicine for the People

It all can be done
It all can be done
Whatever your method, a theory of one
It all can be done
I can't believe it, whats happening to me
And, I'm gonna own it
This right of passage, so attached to it
I'm gonna heal it cuz I've never been abandoned
Just left alone
That's the hardest thing to ignoreIt all can be done
It all can be done
Whatever your method, a theory of one
It all can be done
Most things take their toll
Most things take their toll
Whatever your perception
Whatever your role
And most things make your soul
Take it or leave it, it happened that way
And wether you're needed or not
A part of it is with you wherever you go
And I know you feel it, Cuz it makes up your soul
Oh
That's the hardest thing to ignoreIt all can be done
It all can be done
Whatever your method, a theory of one
It all can be done
Under the pressure, under the gun
It all can be done
Under the pressure, under the gun
Hey, it all can be doneMake the colors make me blind
For all things equal, all things shine
Go now, live your truth
Be of the solids in need of it's fruits
Kind of a mess, how I handled it all
But better the the lessons, when the harder you fall
Wprking backwards since the day I was born
And that's the hardest thing to ignoreIt all can be done

It all can be done
Whatever your method, a theory of one
It all can be doneIt all can be done
It all can be done
Whatever your method, theory of one
It all can be doneLucky for us, there's no one way right to live
And leave it us, to think that we are in charge
Working backwards since the day we were born
And that's the hardest thing to ignore
