String You Along

The Stereo

i'm sorry i hurt you what i did was wrong i didn't want to step on you maybe you could see to forgive me if not i understand, i'll be a man, i'll work on it no one but me cause it just doesn't matter alone in deep cause it doesn't get better it's wrong when i string you along i go on and on and on i told you that i never listen you're never here i'm never there when you need me baby what can i do? you mean everything to me but you're not at fault my heart was broken before we were involved had i not run out on you you might be miserable let's take some time and talk it through i want to stay close to you be able to talk to you as long as it's cool with you it's cool with me too
