Stay Lost

Joe Hertz

There's never felt so right
Only you can take me there
No, I don't want you for the night
'Cause I don't want this life to share
Your temper is my love, my gravity
Connected to your soul, be part of meLeave me a stray, catch you in my system
I've been waiting, show me to your kingdom
We can find a place, hold me till the dawn
Million miles away, I'm already goneJust let me in, I'm in your sunlight
I love the way it makes me come alive
I wanna stay lost in your paradise
Don't wanna be found
You've got me floating now'Cause now I know what it feels like
You took me from the other side
You're just what I was looking for
Still be yours when we're on the shore
Stars so bright, living in your eyes
Guiding me so, so blind
You're just what I was looking for
Still be yours when we're on the shoreLeave me a stray, catch you in my system
I've been waiting, show me to your kingdom
We can find a place, hold me till the dawn
Million miles away, I'm already goneJust let me in, I'm in your sunlight
I love the way it makes me come alive
I wanna stay lost in your paradise
Don't wanna be found
You've got me floating now
I wanna stay locked now in your time
With every way I feel it multiplies
This time I'll stay lost in your paradise
Don't wanna be found
You've got me floating now
