Velvet & Steel

Redhead Express

How do I know that I love you?
I wish you could see what I see.
If my heart was a mirror
It would show you what you mean to me.

You are velvet,
You are steel,
You are magic,
You are real.
In the shadows of my soul
I feel the glow,
That's how I know.

Every time that you touch me,
I fall more deeply in love.
If you could hold me forever,
Baby, it wouldn't long enough.

You are velvet,
You are steel,
You are magic,
You are real.
In the shadows of my soul
I fell the glow,
That's how I know.

Come on and give me all of your love.
And if you're ever down to nothing,
I'll be the one thing that you can be sure of.

You are velvet,
You are steel,
You are magic,
You are real.
In the shadows of my soul
I feel the glow,
That's how I know

In the shadows of my soul
I feel the glow,

That's how I know.
