

End of Your Days

Evergrey

I've tried it all
It's gone too far
And worst of all

Is the promise that I can't keepI have emptied every source
I have learned all there is to knowTo stand by as you wither

To watch your spirit drain
I just wish, hope could last forever
Last foreverSo here we are
The end of your days
So here we areSo here we are
I have lost, I have failed

My promise not kept and I'm sorryI have emptied every source
I have learned all there is to knowSo here we are Holding hands at the end of daysYour eyes slowly shut
Your hand let's go
And I kiss you farewell, farewellSo here we areSo here we are
The end of your days
So here we areSo here we are
I have lost, I have failed
My promise not kept and I'm sorryThe end of your days
So here we are
I promised hope forever but I'm sorryThe end of your days
And I'm sorry
The end of your days
