

Lonely As You

Foo Fighters

What would I do?
Lonely as you
Pleasure or pain I can choose
What would I do?
Lonely as you Pleasure or pain I can choose Wake up your dream and I can't stand your screamin'
Drowning out these prayers just some words without meanin'
Spare all the preachin' my secret's worth keepin'
No one understands like I do Keep out of reach I'm your leadin' deletion
Hide behind these masks
Though they still see right through them
Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again
Down and out again
Down and out again One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe Blame it on you thought these years I've been losin'
Blame it on the past it's the last place I knew you
Blame all the children their rage and their ruin
Blame it on the black and the blue
Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again
Down and out again
Down and out again
I'm down with you One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again
Down and out again
Down and out again
But I'm done with you One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe One more time for the last time
One more time for release

One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the very last time
Everyone wants to believe
All Right!
