

Lost On the River #20

The New Basement Tapes

The tears of a woman are hidden within
As she moves from one to the next
Her spirit goes dead
And the way she falls in love
It's hard, but it's true
But it's oh so much harder
When that man is you

I got lost on the river, but I got found
I got lost on the river, but I didn't drown

One stormy day, I was out at sea
The waves, they roll and tumble over me
I spot dry land, and a tall pale tree
I knew that soon that's where I like to be
My sweetheart left me for another one
And now I wait for the next rising sun

I got lost on the river, but I got found
I got lost on the river, but I didn't drown

I got lost on the river, but I didn't go down
I got lost on the river, but I got found
