

What Say You

Travis Tritt

I believe that there's a right
And I believe that there's a wrong
That north and south, black and white
Can somehow get along
What say you, what say you? I believe that there's a basic good
In the heart of every man
And I'm not gonna criticize
What I can't understand
What say you, what say you? I'm not afraid to say what's on my mind
To take a stand, to draw the line
To speak my heart and bare my soul
I don't like lies, I'd rather know, truth
Hey, what say you, what say you? But I'm not ashamed of where I come from
With this blue collar on my shirt
And I don't look for handouts
'Cause I'm not afraid of work
What say you, yeah, what say you? Man, I don't talk no religion
And I ain't gonna wave that flag
But I love God and America
And I'd fight for what I have
What say you, yeah, what say you? I know I'm not always right
I don't think I'm better than you
I don't have all the answers
But I'll share my point of view
What say you? Yeah, I'm not afraid to say what's on my mind
Take a stand and draw that line
To speak my heart and bare my soul
I don't like lies, I'd rather know, truth
So what say you? What say you?
What say you and you
And you and you and you?
What say you?
What say you?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>