Imagination

Xymox

I have come to indecision
Someone is pushing me
All the cities, subways, rivers
No direction left for meI have lost my way home early
I dont care cause I wont stay there
All I hear is this silent whisper
Will you be here againImagination takes the shadows away
Everyday, Ive been without you
Imagination keeps the shadows away
Everyday, I stay without you
Too many times, without youI have seen your eyes in purple
I have seen your eyes in blue
All the flowers, tears and faces
All the days I spent with youAgain and again, Ive been escaping
Ive been lost in the dark, I fear
Can you hear this silent whisper
Will you be here again?Imagination takes the shadows away
Everyday, Ive been without you
Imagination keeps the shadows away
Everyday, I stay without you
Too many times, without youChoose and change you say
How can you let this run away
See the storms through your broken window
See the beauty of the falling rainEveryday, Ive been without you
Everyday, shadow follows me
Cant you see you left your traces
In too many facesImagination takes the shadows away
Everyday, Ive been without you
Imagination keeps the shadows away
Everyday, I stay without you
Too many times, without you
