Searchin' For My Soul

Amel Larrieux

Once I was happy
Once I was alive
The spirit of my guilty in the mimic of the sky
Watching lives be taken
Must be something in
Cause every day is another for my spirit to surviveSee I was lost oh where's the key?
Cause this soul's simply cramped outside of me[Chorus]
Somebody tell me where to go
Searchin' for my soul
Thought it was stayin' but now I know
Searchin' for my soul
It left an empty space you know
Searchin' for my soul
If you should see it send it homeI tried to be strong but my strength is getting weak
Happiness is clearing I hope I have the vision to see
I'm so heavy-hearted
I've got clearly blues
Lately I can't even bring myself to watch the newsOh I feel the weight of all the world
Is resting on the shoulders of this girl[Chorus]Every time one of us goes down
Like I'm looking at my own blood on the ground
Seems like everybody's lost their minds
And I just might be the next one in line[Chorus][Repeat: x2]
Searchin' for my soul
Searchin' for, searchin' for, searchin' for my soul
