

Give It Away

George Strait

She was stormin through the house that day
And I could tell she was leavin
And I thought ah, shell be back
Til she turned around and pointed at the wall and said That picture from our honeymoon that night in Frisco Bay
Just give it away, she said, Give it away
And that big four-poster, king size bed, where so much love was made
Just give it away, she said, Just give it away Just give it away
There aint nothin in this house worth fightin over
Oh, and were both tired of fightin anyway
So just give it away So I tried to move on
But I found that each woman I held
Just reminded me of that day When that front door swung wide open, she flung her diamond ring
Said, Give it away, just give it away
And I said, Now honey, dont you even want your half of everything?
She said, Give it away, just give it away Just give it away
There aint nothin in this house worth fightin over
Oh, and were both tired of fightin anyway
So just give it away So Im still right here where she left me
Along with all the other things
She dont care about anymore Like that picture from our honeymoon that night in Frisco Bay
She said, Give it away, well, I cant give it away
And that big four-poster, king size bed, where all our love was made
She said, Give it away, well, I cant give it away Ive got a furnished house, a diamond ring
And a lonely broken heart full of love
And I cant even give it away
