

War of the Roses (feat. Jim Beanz)

Empire Cast

Uh. Uh-huh
You love me?
You love me not?When it comes to girls yeah
I don't trust em hell no
Stay arguing and bitching
So much better in the kitchen
You give em a half an inch
You'll have you sitting the bench you try to throw her a bone
She'll try to move in your home
Ain't nothing good bout her but the d cups
That's exactly why i keep the toilet seat upGirls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust em
Its a war of the roses man cuff em
Girls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust emTell myself that i will keep my distance
Hard to mix a pleasure with a little business
Nut she was kissing other guys with lipstick
That's exactly why I'm so damn chauvinistic
Cause i take baby oil and oil her down right down Your ass ain't loyal I heard Chris Brown get down they ain't good for nothing but laying on their back laying on their back they ain't good for nothing but laying on their back laying on their backGirls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust em
Its a war of the roses man cuff em
Girls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust emGirls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust em
Its a war of the roses man cuff em
Girls ain't nothing but trouble
Can't live with em can't love em
Can't live without em can't trust em
