Tu Meri

Asian Dub Foundation

Tu meri me tera
You are mine
And I am yoursStanding together side by side
I'm not your shadow but I could be your guide
Stick with me in this time of insanity
Working together to survive this realityWithout you I don't think I could bear
Belief in myself man you take me there
You see me as I am and what I wanna be
The hopes for myself yes you are the keyAnd when I'm on the mic
I don't have to chat shit
Guns or cars or the size
Of my prickYour inspiration makes me rap wisely
Like tunes for a cold
You make me think clearly
Asian sisters shouldn't hear slacknessBut conscious lyrics like
Sounds of blackness
Asian brothers come listen to me
Respect your sisters if you wanna be freeI will never forget the love you have given
Sacrificed for the life we are living
The greatest wealth that no one can steal
No amount of wickedness would stand in your way
I will never forget
How you struggled to allow us to see a better dayStanding together side by side
I'm not your shadow but I could be your guide
Stick with me in this time of insanity
Working together to survive this realityWithout you I don't think I could bear
Belief in myself man you take me there
You see me as I am and what I wanna be
The hopes for myself yes you are the key
And when I'm on the mic, I don't have to chat shit
Guns or cars or the size of my prickYour inspiration makes me rap wisely
Like tunes for a cold
You make me think clearly
Asian sisters shouldn't hear slacknessBut conscious lyrics like
Sounds of blackness
Asian brothers come listen to me
Respect your sisters if you wanna be free
