

Time 2

The American Dollar

Ha-ha-ha-ha, ha-ha-ha-ha

Ha-ha-ha-ha, ha-ha-ha-ha

Did you know I cried so many tears that I couldn't even feel the rain
Did you know that you hurt me so bad that nothing could ever heal the pain

The trust is gone

The feeling is gone

Everything's gone

I know

How you tied me up and had me locked down in your invisible chains.

Ha-ha-ha-ha, ha-ha-ha-ha

Now it's time that I leave you

Made up my mind went back down

'cos I know who's lovin' who

I suppose that I, I was blinded somehow

I guess I had to come back just to see that it was right to leave

And I know it made me stronger

So it's time that I leave you

'cos now it's the time, it's the time, it's the time to

I didn't know the hourglass was on its very last grain of sand

You said it was timeless and that you'd never let it run out again

But the trust is gone

Dead and gone

Every thing's gone

You know

No matter how you twist and turn it was over and done before we began

Ha-ha-ha-ha, ha-ha-ha-ha

Now it's time that I leave you

Made up my mind went back down

'cos I know who's lovin' who

I suppose that I, I was blinded somehow

I guess I had to come back just to see that it was right to leave

And I know it made me stronger

So it's time that I leave you

'cos now it's the time, it's the time, it's the time to

'cos everything is different now

The tables turned, the bridges burned

Did you know I cried so many that I couldn't even feel the rain

Time to, time to, time to

Time to, time to, time to
Now it's time that I leave you
Made up my mind wont back down
'cos I know who's lovin' who
(Who's loving you)
I suppose that I, I was blinded somehow
I guess I had to come back just to see that it was right to leave
And I know it made me stronger
So it's time that I leave you
'cos now it's the time, it's the time, it's the time to
Now it's time that I leave you
Made up my mind wont back down
(No, I won't back down)
'cos I know who's lovin' who
I suppose that I, I was blinded somehow
I guess I had to come back just to see that it was right to leave
And I know it made me stronger
So it's time that I leave you
'cos now it's the time, it's the time, it's the time to
But the trust is gone
Dead and gone
Everything's gone
Gone [x5]
