

Divine

Blondie

Not of this world entirely
Heaven sent, you are my deity
Lived through all the romance sadly meant for meAll I need is a sign
Make your presence known to mine
Come to me, I will be divineI wear the spell you put on me
Like a charm no one else can see
Keeps away the wicked badly meant for meAll I need is a sign
Make your presence known to mine
Come to me and I will be divineAnd when I thought my fire finally died
I felt your spell tight as ever, tiedNo one is above the rituals of love
Temptation calls and the stars fall from the blue
There is no limitation except for me and youLived through all the romance
Sadly meant for meAll I need is a sign
Make your presence known to mine
Come to me and I will be divineAll I need is a sign
Make your presence known to mine
Come to me and I will be divineAll I need is a sign
Make your presence known to mine
Come to me and I will be divine
