Hold On Me

Esperanza Spalding

I can hold my tongue for years I don't mind for the night time silent I reside thousands of palms about you until one of them comes true I can hold my breath for years I won't get blue on sweets sides from you in my memories the breath of life that tights me through till the air is clear enough to breathe round you I'll keep holding on Such a thrill when you need but a.feet holding still when I feel hopes can hear my heart beat your love may never flow my way still I'm gonna keep holding on shouldn't I just let go .nothing left to do and time just melts away and the current go stronger going down .you but until my love goes dry I'm gonna keep holding on holding on life can't help myself when you're near my self 'cause my heart is like a. keep holding on, holding on
