

Lover, Lover

Jerrod Niemann

Well the truth, well it hurts to say.
I'm gonna pack up my bags and I'm gonna go away.
I'm gonna split, I can't stand it.
I'm gonna give it up and quit,
ain't never comin' back.
But before I get to goin' I got to say
I know you used to love me,
but that was yesterday.
And the truth, I won't fight it
When the love stops burning, you've got to do what's right.

[chorus]

Oh lover, lover, lover
You don't treat me no good no more
Oh lover, lover, lover
You don't treat me no good no more

Well, the truth, yeah it hurts to say
I'm gonna pack up my bags,
And I'm gonna go away
I'm gonna split, I can't stand it
I'm gonna give it up and quit,
Ain't never comin' back.
But before I get to goin',
I got to say: There was a time oh woman,
when you used to shake it for me,
but now all you do is just treat me poor.
Ain't gonna take it no more,
gonna walk out the door.

[chorus x1]

[chorus background]

yeah yeah yeah yeah.
Well, I wait up for you almost every night.
And I'm hurtin' too bad cause you don't treat me right.

Oh woman, oh woman you know I love you so,
but you're so mean to me baby.
I'm walkin' out the door.
Oh lover, oh lover, yeah yeah
no more more more.

I know you used to love me in every way,
but now I'm givin' it up,
and I'm tired of cryin' babe,
I can't stand it no longer.

It hurts me to say,
But I'm packin' up my bags and goin'
far away. Hey lover.

lover, lover, lover you don't treat me no good no more
