Renegade

Carpark North

Shout with me and hear the revolution beating drums leading towards a new world tear apart all maps cause they will only lead us to where we shouldn't be we break the sides of all new worldsEverywhere I turn I see the flames
It starts to burn but it's okay
cause I've been waiting for today to start this riot Feel the ground start to shake all around the world awakes
to the sound my earthquake when I become a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegadeStart breathing and listen to the drums beating They're leading towards a new world
I look at my clock tic-toc ticking
This is the life we're given
So we take it and make it worthyEverywhere I turn I see the flames
It starts to burn but it's okay
cause I've been waiting for today to start this riot
Feel the ground start to shake
all around the world awakes
to the sound my earthquake
when I become a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegadeIt feels like my heart's about to explode
It feels like my heart's about to explode
It feels like my heart's about to explode
It feels like my heart's about to explodeI'm a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet

I'm a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegadeThis is a riot
I'm a renegade
I can't be quiet
I'm a renegade
