Cover Your Heart

Cover Your Heart! Another day alone, another pain to hide

It's gettin' hard to hold, it's hurtin' deep inside

Livin' for no-one, given no space to run

There's gotta be someone! You gotta keep holdin' on Cover your heart

Don't let anyone's lovin' get a hold of you

Cover your heart

Cause it never does nothin' it's supposed to do It wasn't meant to last, you weren't meant to fall

And all the photographs - you want to burn them all

But goin' down easy, it isn't so crazy now

Nobody needs you, but don't let it get you down Cover your heart

Don't let anyone's lovin' get a hold on you

Cover your heart

Cause it never does nothin' it's supposed to do Cover your heart

Don't let anyone's lovin' get a hold on you

Cover your heart Lead You used to have it all there. All a love could be

But now the dreams you shared, are just a memory.

For all the wrong reasons - you want it all, even now

Caught on the rebound, turnin' you inside out. Cover your heart

Don't let anyone's lovin' get a hold on you

Cover your heart

Cause it never does nothin' it's supposed to do Cover your heart

Don't let anyone's lovin' get a hold on you

Cover your heart Don't let anyone

Don't let anyone!

Cover your heart Cover your heart Don't let anyone

Don't let anyone!
