Fearless

Morgan Berry

All my fears and doubts.
Knots in my stomach I can't get out.
My anxiety.
Lost in a world where I can barely breathe
And my whole world is spinning round.
And I can't stop it now.
Please save me somehow.

Ohhhhh....

Take this broken part of me.
And give me peace so I can breathe
And give me strength to carry on.
On my own I'm not that strong.
But you make me fearless, I'm fearless.

Working hard to please,
But nothing cured my insecurities.
Couldn't risk rejection,
A fear of showing my imperfections.
I hid the weakest parts of me,
That I didn't want you to see,
Because deep inside I'm breaking.

Ohhhhh....

Take this broken part of me
And give me peace so I can breathe
And give me strength to carry on
On my own I'm not that strong
But you make me fearless, I'm fearless

Carried my burdens on my own.
Thought I could make it out alone.
But now I know you make me stronger.
Stronger. Stronger.

Yeahhhh....

Take this broken part of me,

And give me peace so I can breathe,
And give me strength to carry on.
On my own I'm not that strong.
But you make me fearless, fearless with you
I'm fearless with you.
