

The Secret of Life

Vision Divine

Too much confusion running in my head
Memories melt down and fade
Overthrowing, new discoveries are here
Telling me the untold answers A new sensation, a strange reaction to
What I feel inside myself
I see answers, I hear echoes of a life
Could it be the one I left behind? What is the secret of life?
How many times? God, You know
I try so hard to discover the way
To break down the curtain blinding my eyes Things get clearer, I knew I would not like Life's so hard to take sometimes
I've been living, I've been dying, why?
Everything here's so inside out What is the secret of life?
How many times? God, You know
I try so hard to discover the way
To tear down the curtain blinding my eyes [Incomprehensible] Find another way
(Gotta find another way)
Break these chains
(I wanna break these chains so bad) Wait another day
(I can't wait another day)
Find another way
(Find another way before I get crazy, before it's too late)
