

Feather Lighter

She Keeps Bees

I offer the world
as the sun rides out
a sacred wind
as the day unwound
morning star
the sky I'll rope
for you the earth
on air we float
take all your words I'll gather
to my head they settle
in a deep
in a still
feather lighter
than my heart to hell
gnashing my teeth
waving
crumble at my feet
wasted
call it what you need
intention of a dream
