

A Mother's Prayer

K. Michelle

(Oh)

(Oh) hmm

(Oh) hmm Last night I prayed on a fallen star

That you never have a broken heart

Though the world is cold, just remember who you are

And I pray that you never have a rainy day

And no matter what people say

Even when it hurts it'll be okay Tomorrow brings new promise so don't worry 'bout today

The first time I saw you

I knew my life had changed

I would've been dead and gone

But I found purpose when I brought you home

And even though I'm not there to tuck you in everyday

I'm not far away

This is what a mother prays Last night I prayed on a fallen star

That you never have a broken heart

Though the world is cold, please remember who you are

And I pray that you never have a rainy day

And no matter what the people say

In your darkest hours I'll help guide your way Those dreams you have I want you to chase 'em (chase 'em)

This bond we got, let nobody break it (break it)

Even when I'm on the road and I can't see your face

This music will never take your place

I love you Chase (Uh I love my Chase) And that's why last night

I prayed on a fallen star

That you never have a broken heart

Though the world is cold, remember who you are

And I pray that you never have a rainy day

And no matter what the people say

Even when it hurts it'll be okay And I pray that you never have a rainy day

And no matter what the people say

In your darkest hours I'll help guide your way, this is what a mother prays Oh whoah

Yeah Your daddy loves you and I love you too

Sorry we couldn't work it out for you

But we gon' do what's best for you

I pray

Oh I pray

I love you

'Cause this is what a mother prays
