

I've Seen What He Can Do

Aaron & Amanda Crabb

Iâ€™VE SEEN WHAT HE CAN DO

I Was Tucking Her In Bed And It Caught Me By Surprise
When My Little Girl Asked Me, What Does God Look Like
Well I Smiled And Laughed A Little
Leaned Over For A Kiss
I Said Baby I Don't Know, But I Can Tell You This

I've Been To The Ocean, And I Stood On A Mountain
I've Seen A Sunset Burn Away A Sky Of Blue
Stared Up At The Star Light, Got Lost In The Midnight
I've Never Seen The Face Of God, But I've Seen What He Can Do

Well I've Thought About The Wonders Around Us Every Day
The Stuff That If You'd Let It, It Would Take Your Breath Away
I've Also Found His Glory Shining From Within
The Heart Of A Sinner Who's Just Been Born Again

I've Been To The River, Watched Souls Going Under Forgiveness Washed Them Clean And Mercy Made Them New Gone Is The Old Man, And I Can Tell You First Hand
I've Never Seen The Face Of God, But I've Seen What He Can Do

Oh, For Now I Don't Need A Picture,
Somehow This Old World Helps Me See Him Clearer

...cause I've Walked In The Valleys, Cried Out From My Sorrow
I Can Tell You Every Fire That He Has Brought Me Through
And I Know Him Better, Love Him Forever,
I've Never Seen The Face Of God, Oh, I've Never Seen The Face Of God,
But I've Seen What He Can Do
