The Only One

Blutengel

"I look into your eyes
And I see all the dreams
You hide inside your heart
I want to hold you
I want to touch you
I want to feel you deep insideWhy don't you trust me?
Why do you lie to me?
I can be everything for you...
No one can love you like I do
I'm the only one for youCan't you hear me calling?
Can't you hear me crying?
I am waiting here for you
Without you it feels like dying
And I don't want to die alone (x2)"I look into your eyes
And I see all the dreams
You hide inside your heart
I want to hold you
I want to touch you
I want to feel you deep insidePlease stop crying you can trust me
Don't be afraid of the blade in my hand
Please stop crying and close your eyes
This pain will go away so soon."Can't you hear me calling?
Can't you hear me crying?
I am waiting here for you
Without you it feels like dying
And I don't want to die alone (x2)
