So Sad So Lonely

Matchbox 20

I found out
On a late night drive
In my winter coat
With my blood shot eyes
My faith ain't been
No friend to me
And the way I sin
Is hanging off of me
And I'm sorry
You can't take me anywhere
Pretty soon we're almost there
Baby, one more night
It's been a long, long drive
And I'm way, way tired
I don't need no
Back up plan
I don't want nobody
Nobody don't want me
I'm so sad so lonely
But I'm always landing on my feet
One more time
With a sad, sad smile
And your white bread friends
In the circus life
All the one way rides
The sweet beginnings
Passing on the left hand side
With a sideways smile
And I'm always
One step from stalling
Bad trips can make great stories
Dance all night
With your ass on fire
And your hands up high
And feel me one more time
I don't want nobody
Nobody don't want me
I'm so sad so lonely
But I'm always landing on my feet

I learn to love myself
And I don't need no one else
And when a love moves on
'Cause it gets cold
Well, then another moves in
And it can fill the hole
Well, I'm one more
Hopeful, lying on the bedroom floor
No sense trying
When the whole thing drops
You lose your nerve
I hope you get what you deserve
I said I don't want nobody
Nobody don't want me
I'm so sad, so lonely
But I'm always landing on my feet
