

Just Another Word

Joanne Shaw Taylor

I've been chasing a love that can't be found Stuck in the same old groove
But I won't break down just going round and around and around
That's the way I keep this wheel turning To save my soul from any more searching
I tell myself that loves just another word
That don't mean much to me in this world
If just for a while my heart was in your hands
I've learned all the lessons
My time can stand
My faith is gone
But i go on and on
