

I'd Sing About You

Joe Nichols

If I was a Beatle, I'd sing about yesterday
If I was James Taylor, I'd Sing about fire and rain
If I was Elvis, I'd sing about my shoes
But since I'm just me, I'd sing about you
If I was Hank Williams, it'd be about heartache and pain
If I was Tom Petty, I'd sing about Mary Jane
If I was Ol' Willie, I'd sing about eyes that are blue
But since I'm just me, I'd sing about you 'Cause you are the perfect melody
You are every note I'd sing
Every word I'd write
Even when I'm out of tune
All I can be, is me
And sing about you
If I was Jimmy Buffett, I'd sing about swimmin'
If I was a Stone, it'd be about Honky Tonk women
If I was Ol' Blue Eyes, I'd sing fly me to the moon
But since I'm just me, I'd sing about you 'Cause you are the perfect melody
You are every note I'd sing
Every word I'd write
Even when I'm out of tune
All I can be, is me
And sing about you
Leila, Amanda, Maggie May, and June
The only thing missin' is
You are the perfect melody
And you are every note I'd sing
Every word I'd write
Even when I'm out of tune
All I can be, is me
And sing about you
All I care to be, is me, singin' 'bout you
You know I'd sing about you

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>