

Sleepy Eyes

Chip Taylor

And he's drunk from his dreaming and he dreams you, just once in a while

You had no Miami...this winter to make you smile

And you took him for better or worse then you dream could be

And if there's no rainbow or storybook in things you still see what you wanna see

One day his white horse will ride down your trail, sleepy eyes

And beg you and keep you and wake you and dream you, forever, sleepy eyes

Some kinds are better, just ain't worth the dreams that you see

And if there's no rainbow
there must be a rainbow
for you and for me

down your trail, sleepy eyes

and dream you forever, sleepy eyes

there must be a rainbow

down your trail, sleepy eyes

And take you and keep you and wake you and dream you forever sleepy eyes.....
