Count Me Out

Blood Red Shoes

If this is what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out

(you can count me out)

She was only seventeen a few months shy maybe
Boy looks in her eye such a lover
A few weeks down the line they're tying the knot
But then a few weeks after that it's over

If she's spending her life without him, she's calling it quits

If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out
If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out

(you can count me out yeah)

Boy come home from school to find his momma crying
He looks inside her eyes so blue (her eyes so blue)
They sit down side by side she tells him the truth
She say last night I caught your daddy having a (ugh ugh ah!)

She's trying to wrap her mind around it
She can't figure it out (she can't figure it out)

If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out
If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out

(you can count me out)

Loneliness won't leave me alone

It's mid July and I'm still cold (you're so far away)
Thinking of my saddest memory yeah, just so I can cry
(tell me more tell me more)

All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you, yeah
All I need is you

If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out
If this what love is all about
You can count me out, baby count me out
Just count me out

(you can count me out)
