Carnival

Bikini Kill

this is a song about the seedy underbelly of the carnival
The part that only the kids know about this is a song about 16 year old girls giving head to carnies for free rides and hits of pot
I wanna go I wanna go
I wanna go to the carnival
But it costs 16 dollars yeah
I wanna go to the carnival
But I know it costs 16 dollars now Round, round, round....
Gonna lose 20 dollars while I'm there see the girls with the feathered hair They're wearing plastic, not real leather boots that go way up to there
Round, round, round.....
It's by the Lacey mall, that's where you'll find me, yeah.
