

Martyr

Syx

Show me how it all came true and I'll follow
let live next in line
line them up to see dominoes are faceless
after they fall something is missing But pull away left to be afraid
the bitterness
has chosen me, never be the same Show me show me how it all began violet hands gleaming
gently cradle me
beg to show me how to begin to live again I'D RATHER just fall off
THAN UPSET
our balance
THE ONE WHO
still sings here
YOU LEFT US MINUS ONE I'm lining up all that was took from me between all the lines I destroy what you gave to me alone I try not to believe
AFTER ALL THAT HAS CHANGED THE MARTYR IS STILL ME THE MARTYR
