Star Sail

The Verve

Hello it's me, it's me
Calling out I can see you
Hello it's me, crying out, crying out
Are you there?Hello it's me, it's me
I want to touch you
It's me throwing stones from the stars
On your mixed up worldBeen circling round for twenty years
And in that time I've seen all the fires and all the liars
I've been calling home for twenty years
And in that time I heard the screams rebound to me
While, you were making historyI could see the fire
And I'll throw the fire back down
