

No One Does It Better

You Me at Six

I woke up this morning with a grudge the size of a short story
Oh, I feel, I feel so low
Let me start at the end, the part I haven't figured out yet
Yes, I am, I'm moving slow You are playin' the lead
The headache that my actions feed
Oh, I've only got myself to blame
This is another test which I would fail when at my best
Oh, always ending the same If I were an honest guy
I'd give this role another try What do I do when I am so in love with you,
I forgot what I wanted to say
What do I do when you won't change your ways,
It's time, it's time If I just save you, you could save me too
If I just save you, then you could save me too (da da da da, da da da da) I woke up the next morning and I didn't see it coming
Oh, your bags were packed and gone
I called all your friends and they said hadn't seen you yet
Oh, my head's going to explode If I were an honest guy
I'd give this role another try What do I do when I am so in love with you,
I forgot what I wanted to say
What do I do when you won't change your ways,
It's time, it's time If I just save you, you could save me too
If I just save you, then you could save me too I believe in the finer things, and you don't believe in me
I said, I believe in the finer things, and you don't believe in me
I said, I believe in the finer things, and you don't.. If I just save you, you could save me too
If I just save you, then you could save, you could save me too What do I do when I am so in love with you,
I forgot what I wanted to say
What do I do when I am so in love with you,
I forgot what I wanted to say If I just save you
(No one does it better,
No one does it better,
No one does it oh,
No one does it better)
If I just save you
(No one does it better,
No one does it better,
No one does it oh,
No one does it better) I woke up this morning with a grudge the size of a short story,
Which now I have told you all.
