

Locked Out

Red Wire Black Wire

I'm locked out
a little brother again
what were you doing?
the nervous wreck that I am I've got to know

You blacked out
who were you with in there you had fun
was it bad?
would I care?
I've got to know

I know that I'm a bomb
and it's hard
to refuse an offer
and you've already
got a father
and I'm always
playing the martyr
but I'm locked out
oh, I'm locked out
I'm locked out
oh, I'm locked out

you're dressed up
another night on the town we're fucked up
and you get lost in the crowd I've been here before

I knock loud
I'm not allowed in there my fist swells
God, I can't breathe in this air
I've been here before

and it's hard

and I'm always
playing the martyr
but I'm locked out
I'm locked out
oh, I'm locked out

the big kids don't want you in here you're too young to easily scare trying hard to give it all away you're too afraid to just let the big kids play your girls gone, she'd rather be with us all over why don't you just grow up? how'd you even end up in this house?
maybe she'll call when she is coming down

I'm locked out
