Lies

Backyard Babies

Well, Ill be your cigarette man

Do whatever I can

Honey, cant you see at the end of the line theres a home

So far away

Sittin here like a smoke in the rain

Im trying to figure out why sometimes I cant tell you all the things you wanna hearOh, yeah, never ever I can walk your garden

You dont speak, you dont say a word

It really doesnt matter anyway

Why am I like a child in the playground

Wanna touch the rainOh, why cant you tell me lies

Like you never ever done before

Oh, why cant you tell me lies

I need to hear some more

Some more

Some more

Like you never ever done beforeSometimes Ive been so close

But all of the sudden memories just seems to disappear

So far away

It touches me to see your graceless moves

On the other hand it kills me so shame on you

To crusify me on your... yeahOh, yeah, never ever I can walk your garden

You dont speak, you dont say a word

It really doesnt matter anyway

Why am I like a child in the playground

Wanna touch the rainOh, why cant you tell me lies

Like you never ever done before

Oh, why cant you tell me lies

I need to hear some more

Some more

Some more

Like you never ever done before Well, life can sometimes be such a tragedy

You would not understand

You would not understand

Why youre bringin me downOh, yeah, never ever I can walk your garden

You dont speak, you dont say

And it really doesnt matter anyway

Why am I like a child in the playgroundWanna touch the rain

Oh, why cant you tell me lies

Like you never ever done before
Oh, why cant you tell me lies
I need to hear some more
Oh, why cant you tell me lies
Like you never ever done before
Oh, yeah, cant you tell me lies
I need to hear some more

Some more

Some more

Like you never ever done before

Some more

Some more

Like you never ever done before`Cause Ill be your cigarette man I do whatever I can

But, honey, cant you see at the end of the line theres a home Why do I keep telling you these god damn lies?
