I'm The Cat

Jackson Browne

Baby, I'm around you enough to know when you're coming down
And I am there with a smile, prepared to bring you around
You're thinking that you've got me trained I'm aware of that
But when you need your outlook changed baby, I'm the catBaby, I'm allowed to be late when I'm coming home
You know it'll be there when I want to and you let me roam
You think you've got me figured out I don't know about that
But when you want to twist and shout baby, I'm the catBaby, I might not be all that
Your fortune cookie promised you
But I will do I'm the cat
Baby I baby I'm the cat
Oh yeah baby I'm the catBaby, I'm in love with the way you scratch my back
You've got the only thing I want and that's a fact
And when sometimes we disagree you take me to the mat
But when I get you spinning free baby I'm the catBaby, I might not be all that
The gypsy woman prophesied
But be advised I'm the cat
Baby I might not be all that
Your magic 8 ball said I'd beBut you will see I'm the cat
Baby I baby I'm the cat
Oh yeah baby I'm the cat
