

Make Mine Violet

Dressy Bessy

Hey, it's nice to get away sometimes... I don't mind... I don't mind

Bitters sailing down my face like I'm ever gonna drink again

I've put your letter on my desk like I'm ever gonna find it there

Mothers say we could grow to be loved some

Like I'd never ever ask again

Make mine special make mine the loudest

Make like I'm never gonna pray again

Well I'm never ever gonna pray again

Well I'm never ever gonna pray again

Well I'm never ever gonna pray - never ever

Hi Hi I'm fond of you

Take me to the sea

Where we'll be happy

A happy you and me

Shivers running down your leg like you've never ever had them there

I'd keep my number in your vest in case you ever wanted me again

Mothers say we could grow to be loved some

Like I'd never ever ask again

Naked sadness makes me tense

Looks like I'm never ever gonna feel again

Well I'm never ever gonna feel again

Well I'm never ever gonna feel again

Well I'm never ever gonna feel - never ever

Let the sun be gone in reverse

Let the words be wrong could be worse

Words'll fade someday they'll become your favorite song

To my surprise

I've gotten hold of a patch of sunshine

To my surprise

I've let 'em go in the back of my mind... well

Quitter says he's almost dead like he'll never ever breathe again

His name tattooed on my chest like I'll ever give a damn again

Mothers say we could grow to be loved some

Like I've never ever changed for good

Make mine simple make mine violet

Make me never have to care again

Well I'm never ever gonna care again

Well I'm never ever gonna care again

Well I'm never ever gonna care again - never ever

Make mine violet, Violet
I'll take mine violet yeah yeah
Make mine violet, Violet
I'll take mine violet yeah yeah
I'll take mine violet yeah
