60 Feet Tall

The Dead Weather

You're so cruel and shameless but I can't leave you be You're so cold and dangerous, I can't leave you be
You got the kind of loving I need constantly
Hooked up to my motor all day long
We go down to Texas, up to Montreal
Two eyes none the wiser in the deep
Oh, when the water gets hotter both hands in the deep
You got my attention, oh you got it all
I can take the trouble 'cause I'm 60 feet tall
I know it ain't easy, I must tap your evil well
Boy, you come roaring like a bat out of hell
You drive me so reckless, you'll kill us all
I can take the trouble, I'll take you on
Take the trouble 'cause I'm 60 feet tall
You're so cruel and shameless but I can't let leave you be
So cold and dangerous that I can't leave you be
You got the kind of loving I need constantly
I can take the trouble 'cause I'm 60 feet tall
