

My Life

Skrape

Hey Hey, fuck you! and all the bitches made
Once again, I fit it in
And fuck it up again
And you think what?
A motherfucker abusing rake
In the face of hate
I stay in shape, I push it to an escapadeThere goes my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
This is my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowningRespect, isn't something you get for free, From me
A generation left me floating independently
Now keep gain to what the industry showed me
The masterminds, they trusted you freely, todayThere goes my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
This is my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
