The Edge

Jennifer Paige

A crowded room in the dead of night
Bodies crash in the sound and sight
I see your face break through in a flash of a lightWith eyes that seem to read my mind
I feel we've touched in another time
And suddenly my heart is coming aliveAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me, oh I
I think I'm going over
Over the edgeThe night unfolds like a lover's arms
But we can't talk, don't know where to start
We breathe as one but we're two worlds apartSo let's not question right or wrong
Wanna move with you 'til the night is gone
And suddenly this is where we belongAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me, oh I
I think I'm going over
Over the edgeIf I'm going over, baby, come with me
All the way over, babyAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me, oh I
I think I'm going overAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me, oh I
I think I'm going overAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me, oh I
I think I'm going overAnd I feel you calling me all night
Pulling me closer
Wanna give you all of me
