Keep On Walking

Ronan Keating

Seems like I was always running from someone or something
So scared what life could hold, didn't even want to know
Each day I would stand against it, put up my defenses
Wouldn't let nobody inside, then you walk in my lifeYour love is all I know, never let you go
Baby, with you I choose my road
All my life, you're the reason why
Baby, with you I walk that roadNow, nothing can defeat me, knowing you complete me
You make me stronger each day, you lead me all the way
Anything you wanna do, I'll be there beside you
As long as you don't leave, my dreams are guaranteedYour love is all I know, never let you go
Baby, with you I choose my road
All my life, you're the reason why
Baby, with you I walk that roadI'll walk that road hand in hand
Till its end, nothing can stop me nowYour love is all I know, never let you go
Baby, with you I choose my road
All my life, you're the reason why
Baby, with you I walk that roadWoah, woah, woah, never let you go
Baby, with you I choose my road
All my life, you're the reason why
Baby, with you I walk that roadSeems like I was always running from someone or something
So scared what life could hold, didn't even want to know
Each day I would stand against it, put up my defenses
Wouldn't let nobody inside
