Forest

PFR

There's a forest in my heart
No, I'm not crazy
I can feel the trees
Reaching out toward the skyBut the sun is setting hard
Somehow that changes me
Maybe you have seen
How the light can leave my eyesThere's a forest in my heart
It seems so crazy
'Cause I've tried to climb
Every tree that shades my mindBut with every try I find
The branches breaking
And I'm alone and cold
Like the shadows left behindThere's a forest in my heart
I must be crazy to believe
That I could climb to reach the skyFor I know that in its time
The sun will come to me
And in warmth and love
I will rise the above the sky, oh
