Squares

The Pushers

I seen the demons but they didn't make a sound
They tried to reach me but I lay upon the ground
I seen the people but they didn't make a sound
They tried to reach me but I gave the runaround
I reached for feelings but they didn't make a sound

They tried to reach me but I lay upon the ground
I saw miles and miles of squares, where's the feeling there
Still nobody cares for miles and miles of squares
Daydream I fell asleep beneath the flowers
