Lay Down

Natasha Bedingfield

Speechless, but the answers in my mouth
Breathless, the emotions seeping out
Beyond my control
You spoke to my silence, and asked
Why so cold?

You ask for peace, I give you war
While you let go, I hold too tightly
I take my aim, you hit the floor,
I'm not ready to,
Lay down my arms

Cracking, my defences breaking down
The unravelling, of a rope I put around me
You wont take no for an answer

Chorus

I didn't know I was missing out, 'til you lost and I, I won
You made me realise my incompleteness alone
Can no longer live by candlelight
When you show me the sun

Chorus
