

Eloise

Dave Frishberg

Yesterday, I was all alone
Nobody called on the telephone
Yeah, I was down
But now things are changin'
I met a girl with a 45
Drive in, sister
Hunky dory eyes
Satellite of love, infatuation
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise
You always say what I wanna hear
Speak the truth and it's loud and clear
Oh yeah, you lifted me up from my desolation
I won't be lookin' the other way

At pretty things that may pass my way
I've straight ahead now with no complications
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise
Well, I don't know what I'm doin'
But I know that I ain't doin' without you
'Cause I know what I believe in
And I know that I ain't leavin' without you, Eloise
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise
Yeah, put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise, now Eloise
